

INJUNCTION FOR MAYOR.

QUARREL LED TO SUICIDE.

Action Taken in Court Against New Board of Health.

JUDGE COOK ACTS IN THE CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—An injunction against the new Board of Health was issued by Presiding Judge Carroll Cook and filed with the County Clerk this morning. The injunction was ordered on complaint of Dr. Vincent P. Buckley, a member of the old Board, and was filed by Gavin McNab and Garret McEnery, attorneys for the old Board.

The action is brought by Drs. J. M. Williamson, V. P. Buckley and R. W. Baum against Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, A. Ruef, J. W. Ward, M. E. Van Meter and A. S. Adler. It is set forth in the complaint that the plaintiffs had not at trial upon the matters set forth in the order of removal.

After reading the complaint, Judge Carroll Cook issued an injunction restraining the defendants from acting as a Board of Health and directing them to desist from in any manner interfering with the plaintiffs in the conduct of their office or from possessing themselves of all records and archives of the office.

The injunction suit has been assigned to Judge Sloss for hearing. It specifies no time when the order shall be returnable, but under law a demurrer to the complaint may be filed and the matter brought to an issue.

William Jacobs, a son of the deceased, gave corroborative testimony, and the inquest was closed.

SAN FRANCISCO MAY GET BIG FIGHT

All Dealings With the Los Angeles Club Is at an End

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Fitzsimmons seem to be determined not to fight Jeffries in Los Angeles. Although the Century Athletic Club of that city wired to him that they would agree to give 75 per cent of the gross receipts and guarantee $25,000, Fitzsimmons says that he considers the Los Angeles affair closed. Bob made demands on the club that were extravagant, and now when they accept his own terms, he still refuses to sign for a fight.

President Morley and Manager McCarey of the club met Joe Egan and George Miller, representing Jeffries, and decided to reconsider their refusal to fight Jeffries in Los Angeles.

George Slier or any other reputable Easterner was agreed upon to act as referee. The statement made by Fitz that Jeffries has an interest in the club was emphatically denied. The club officials said, however, at the time they made these concessions to the whimical pugilists that they had little hope of his accepting the offer as it had long since concluded he did not want to fight.

A telegram from New York says that when Fitzsimmons received the telegram from the club, he said that he reluctantly agreed to have his previously announced that they could not consider his proposition. That announcement closed all dealings between himself and the club, he says.

This is very satisfactory to the San Francisco people who want to see the championship fight pulled off. In this city it is practically certain that if Fitz fights Jeffries at all the match will be here.

SPEAK EASY OWNER IS FINED $500.

Judge Edgar Gives the Full Limit to Mrs. Mary Thompson.

BERKELEY, March 26.—Justice of the Peace Edgar today imposed the maximum fine of $500 on Mrs. Mary Thompson, who was convicted last week by a jury of violating the State law relative to selling liquor within a mile of the University.

In his address to the jury District Attorney Phil Walsh stated that the jury could bring in a verdict of guilty with a recommendation of mercy to the court if they so desired.

The jury, however, brought in a straight verdict, without recommendations and Justice Edgar imposed the maximum fine of $500, with the alternative of six months imprisonment.

This is the second proprietor of an alleged "speak easy" that has been convicted and given the maximum fine.

One case remains to be tried yet.

MAY SELL THE ALAMEDA LIGHT PLANT

Trustee Hammond Says An Offer of $125,000 Has Been Made.

ALAMEDA, Mar. 26.—It is announced that an offer of $125,000 has been made for the city electric light plant and it is probable that the proposition may be submitted to the voters. The plant has always been the source of much complaint to the Trustees.

City Trustee Hammond said, when interviewed on the question, that personally he did not favor disposing of the plant, but he was in favor of giving the voters an opportunity to return or dispose of the plant, about which they had "kicked" so often.

In an interview Mr. Hammond said: "I have heard so much grumbling about the plant that the City Trustees are expending on the electric light plant that I have thought it would be a good idea to submit to the people the question of selling the works. While I do not favor selling the plant and would not of my own motion bring the matter before the City Trustees, it would be guided by the voters of the county."

"There is no question that the taxpayers have been doing considerable grumbling concerning the city plant, I am prepared to say, whether there is a community for the company or not, but they do not fully understand the situation and many of the figures published relative to the expenditures are misleading."

"It came right down to the point of the citizens would look into the situation and it might result in a better feeling toward the municipal plant, and it might not."

"I am satisfied that if the city decided to sell it could get at least $125,000 for its property. In fact, I am sure that an offer of that amount has been made. I am not in favor of selling the plant, but being a member of the city council people it would be my duty to follow their decision if the matter was referred to them."

STORMED HOME WITH ROTTEN EGGS.

How Alameda News-boys Got Even on Owner of Route.

ALAMEDA, March 26.—Last night the house occupied by M. A. Larsen on 14th Pacific Avenue was plastered with rotten eggs and Larsen, who happened to open his front door, had a pair of trousers ruined by a flying egg.

Larsen some time ago purchased a portion of the San Francisco "Call" route in this city. He has had considerable trouble with his carriers and it is to them that he charges the eggs throwing.

He has reported the matter to the police and an attempt will be made to land the miscreants who threw the eggs.

BOERS NOT IN A TRAP.

Gen. Delarey and Men Evade Kitchener's Dragnet.

WERE NOT TO BE CAUGHT NAPPING.

LONDON, March 26.—Incomplete reports of the result of the combined movement of British columns against General Delarey have enabled Lord Kitchener to announce the capture of over a hundred prisoners, three 15-pound guns, two pompons and quantities of stock wagons etc. General Delarey appears to have successfully evaded Lord Kitchener's cordon at the offset. In a dispatch dated from Pretoria at noon yesterday, Lord Kitchener says:

"At dusk on the evening of March 22 the combined movement against Delarey was undertaken by columns of mounted men, without guns or impediment of any sort. The columns started from Commando Drift on the Vaal River and travelled rapidly, the distance covered being 10 miles. On March 24th occupied positions along the line from Commando Drift to the Lichtenberg blockhouse line. The troops moved rapidly eastward, keeping a continuous line, with the object of driving the enemy against the blockhouses or forcing an action. The result has not yet been fully reported. Kokewich's column, after the commencement of the action, captured nine horses, ten ponies, nine prisoners and a hundred mules, carts and wagons. General Kitchener's column captured 88 prisoners, 45 carts and wagons and a thousand cattle. There are a few more prisoners on the blockhouse line. The troops covered eighty miles in 24 hours. Rochforts and Rawlinson's columns have not yet reported their results."

Lord Kitchener, in a later message, says:

"Once his day's work at the offices of the British Chartered South African Company was over, he shut himself up from the curious in an unfrequented London hotel where he utterly denied himself to all except half a dozen favored intimates. Dr. Jameson was his constant companion. Indeed, none of Dr. Jameson's indiscretions ever affected the warm friendship existing between the two men. They could be seen in the park in the morning together, riding on horseback, never breaking out from a walk, the cynosure of all eyes, yet severely unobtrusive of the hundreds of London's political and social leaders who had a right to a bowing acquaintance. More especially did Mr. Rhodes shun the present government leaders.

CONTempt FOR ARMY METHODS.

He bitterly expressed his contempt of British army methods in South Africa and probably never quite forgave Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Milner for not consulting him or endeavoring to utilize the powerful financial-political machine which Mr. Rhodes undoubtedly manipulated over the whole of South Africa. With increasing irritability, which he did not hesitate to vent on Duke or plebian who crossed his path, he grew more and more restless as the end of his life drew near. He was never contented to stay long in one place.

HIS CLOSING DAYS.

His closing days devolved into an uneasy, purposeless quest of change of scene. During his recent trip to Egypt this was particularly noticeable. He rushed from place to place as if with the only object of upsetting his own plans. Then he suddenly returned to England.

Financially, Mr. Rhodes' death is not likely to have any very far-reaching results, as all his enterprises were systematized so thoroughly as not to need the master mind which was so necessary to their inception.

HAD A GREAT FORTUNE.

Owing to the very great success of the De Beers mines, the British Chartered South Africa Company and the other great South African ventures, Rhodes' fortune had been steadily accumulating. He lost money over the war, but what inroads that made must have been trifling compared with the many millions he possessed. He never lost his open hand but somewhat recklessly methods of handling money. Not long ago he walked into the office of one of his confidential subordinates and threw down a bundle of notes, bonds, etc., saying "Invest these for me," and went out without waiting to have them looked at. Inspection revealed the fact that they amounted to more than a million pounds sterling. How they were invested Mr. Rhodes never knew or cared, for months later, as that night he went off on one of his wandering tours and refused to allow himself to be bothered with the details of the investment of his millions until he returned to England.

BY JOSEPH E. BAKER.

Cecil Rhodes was one of the remarkable men of his time. He was the son of an English clergyman in indifferent circumstances, and was forced to go to South Africa because of ill health. There in winter he worked in his brother's store and in summer attended lectures at Oxford University. He went with the rush to the diamond mines at Kimberley, and ultimately organized the syndicate that obtained control of them. He branched out into politics and organized the South African Chartered Company, which was given absolute control of the vast region known as Rhodesia. His operations brought him in conflict with the Transvaal Republic, which was the chief obstacle to his scheme of bringing all South Africa under the British flag. When the rich gold discoveries were made at Johannesburg the struggle between Rhodes and the Transvaal assumed an acute phase which culminated in the famous Jameson raid. Jameson was a protege of Rhodes, and the men associated in his ill-starred expedition were employees of the Chartered Company and adventurous followers of Rhodes. Although Rhodes was in London at the time, the raid was the direct result of his teaching and policy.

The present war is the legitimate consequence of the Jameson raid, and the policy which directed it. Rhodes for a time lost prestige, but he was again assuming his old position as a commanding figure in South African affairs when he was stricken with fatal illness. He was a man of tremendous force and commanding intellect, but like all men of his type cared little about the right or wrong of the methods he used to achieve success. The vast fortune he received from the diamond mines was lavishly used to further his schemes. In many respects he was a liberal, progressive man, but he had a lust for power and a desire for political aggrandizement that overshadowed all other qualities. He was to South Africa what Clive and Warren Hastings were to India—ruthless, but bold, generous and able. He lived to be only 46.

FARMERS ORGANIZE

Have Opened Up An Insurance Company in Sacramento County.

TRYING TO SETTLE MINERS STRIKE.

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—A number of farmers proceeding under authority of an act of the Legislature of 1897, met at Foresters' Hall in this city on Monday last and organized a Central Insurance Company.

About twenty-five representative farmers attended the meeting, the company having a membership of about 40.

The following officers were elected: George Hack, president; Joseph Holton, vice-president; Joseph Cornell, secretary, and Charles Schreiner, treasurer.

These officers are also directors, the others being N. Lauridsen, W. E. Dixon and David Lees.

Under the law which permits the formation of county fire insurance companies, there are no restrictions to have on deposit an amount to fund the liability.

"The case with insurance companies generally, being in fact an organization for mutual protection, against loss by fire, every member stands his assessment pro-rata to meet the loss sustained by any member."

"I am satisfied that if the city decided to sell it could get at least $125,000 for its property. In fact, I am sure that an offer of that amount has been made. I am not in favor of selling the plant, but being a member of the city council people it would be my duty to follow their decision if the matter was referred to them."

DIAMOND KING OF KIMBERLEY PASSES AWAY.

Cecil Rhodes, the Great South African Magnate, Has Laid Down Power and Riches.

CAPE TOWN, March 26.—Mr. Rhodes died peacefully at 5:57 P. M. He slept during the afternoon, but his breathing became more difficult and his strength perceptibly diminished until he passed away.

THE NEWS IN LONDON.

LONDON, March 26.—The death of Cecil Rhodes came as no great surprise to those few who saw anything of him during his last visit to London during the winter. Whether it was due to experiences during the long siege of Kimberley or the accumulated anxieties regarding the war in South Africa, with an accompanying change of public feeling in England towards him, there is no doubt he was almost completely broken down within the last two years.

NEVER TOLD OF AILMENTS.

Even his appearance changed. His once finely chiselled face had become bloated and his always huge frame filled out until he became so stout as to make walking a matter of difficulty. He was further attacked by severe heart troubles, during which he maintained the stoicism which marked his extraordinary career. Nor did he allow his bodily ailments to interfere with business. Among his associates in the city he never mentioned them, nor did he permit them to be mentioned to him. Up to the last, Mr. Rhodes kept a firm grip on all those vast South African interests created and controlled by him. Except that he was more irritable and more dictatorial, there was no outward change in his method of handling men, business and empires.

DR. JAMESON HIS COMPANION.

Once his day's work at the offices of the British Chartered South African Company was over, he shut himself up from the curious in an unfrequented London hotel where he utterly denied himself to all except half a dozen favored intimates. Dr. Jameson was his constant companion. Indeed, none of Dr. Jameson's indiscretions ever affected the warm friendship existing between the two men. MOCHO PUBLIC SCHOOL IS RE-OPENED

For eight months what is known as the Mocho School District, situated between Livermore and Menlo Park Springs in this county, has been without a school. The building in which class was formerly held was there, but there was neither pupils nor teacher.

On and after Monday next, however, this unfortunate state of affairs will no longer exist.

The doors of the little rural school were closed because there could not be found within the district 15 children of school age who sought instruction.

That is the minimum number of scholars for whom a school may be kept open at the expense of the public.

Eight months ago the school population of the district had decreased to nine children. As a consequence, the doors of the little school were closed and it became the duty of the Supervisors to declare the school district lapsed.

No action was taken on the subject, however, until one week ago last Monday, when the duty was performed by the Supervisors.

Monday last a resolution was introduced into the same Board rescinding the former action.

It seemed strange that such contradictory measures should be acted upon by the matter is explained in this manner:

Since the school closed, eight months ago, a goodly portion of the children below school age are now entitled to be enu-

merited as "of school age."

Recently, also, two families each with numerous progeny, have moved into the district, giving the latter a school population of sixteen. This entitles the district to a school, and, accordingly,

Superintendent of Schools Crawford was applied to to open a school.

The Superintendent, however, acknowledged that the Supervisors, who were waiting for "better times," had never declared the district lapsed. This is mandatory upon the Board, and the resolution on that subject was adopted a week ago. The later resolution rescinded the former action introduced by the Supervisors, by law compelled to have over-till the ensuing meeting. It will then be adopted and Mocho will once more be enrolled among the sister school districts of Alameda county.

MACDONOUGH THEATER BLOCK

RELIANCE BOXING NIGHT
A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

By J. W. LANGFORD.

HARD TO BEAT

McFadden's Aggressive Tactics Wear Out Snailham in the Seventh Round.

The aggressive, hustling, fighting "Kid" McFadden did not get the punching at the Reliance Club last night many ring followers expected and fondly hoped to see. McFadden is not a popular idol of the prize ring because of the very qualities that go to make up a fighter. He has a west of union expression to his fall while in Oakland, and a south of Market curl to his lips when in San Francisco and wears a Bowery bung to his red locks when in New York and his whole front is burlesqued with a leer too tough to please the sports, hence the desire to see somebody soundly thrash him. But McFadden is a fighter and a pocket edition of the bruiser of the old London pugil days when the battles were fought on the green sod with bare knuckles and he is not easily whipped.

In his contest with Snailham last night, the rough and tumble, aggressive tactics took all the polish and edge off the science, skill and beauty of Greggian's protege and in the seventh round Snailham was worn out to such extent his seconds rushed to his rescue and forced a contest. For a few rounds Snailham showed up to advantage with his pretty boxing, but McFadden's eagerness to walk into anything and take three or four punches for the chance to land one took all the science out of Snailham and left him to the mercy of a good punch and the care of his seconds, all of which reached home in the seventh round.

Billy Woods of Los Angeles overawed Kelly with the cyclone front which happened to fight without courage or heart until near the close of the battle, when he seemed to realize that Woods was not so much of a fighter after all and then he cut loose and succeeded in making a good end-

WEIGHT WILL STOP

Old England Fails to Successfully Shoulder a Heavy Impost With Older Horses.

The defeat of the crack three-year-old Old England at Emeryville yesterday in the Sacramento handicap is an excellent illustration of what weight will do to bring horses together, yet Old England was defeated in a manner to indicate that something beside the weight stopped him, and he will have to be given another trial before his authorities can be persuaded that he is not a better horse than he showed yesterday. The track was put in bad shape by a heavy and steady downpour of rain and the condition of the track added to the heavy weight may have taken the speed and staying powers away from Old England.

Four favorites won in a row yesterday, but two of them were aided by unfortunate starts in which the second choices and contenders were passed over. The first choice, The Peterites of Sylvie Talbot and Geresta were made easy by the bad start given Alonso in the two-year-old race and February in the Bernota race. Both favorites were backed off the boards. Sylvie Talbot opened in the betting at 6 to 5 and went to the post at 3 to 5.

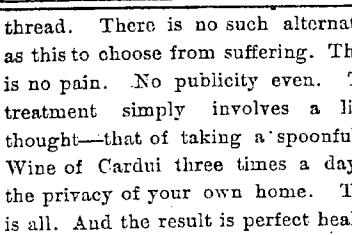

Miss H. L. Benning

A Young Lady of St. Joseph, Mich., Praises Wine of Cardui.

WHEN women determine to do anything they generally succeed. They are not physically strong as men are, but they have brains and possess that quality of enlisting everyone's sympathy in their cause to bring about what they desire. There are many instances where women when put on their mettle have astonished the world. Just as in other affairs in life, if a woman will have health and strives earnestly to that end, she almost invariably secures good health. But the great difficulty is for a woman to recognize that she is suffering from female weakness. The idea is shocking to her. She imagines she is the only one among her friends who is afflicted.

It is reasonable to say there are very few women who could not be well if they would always take Wine of Cardui when they need it. Miss Hattie Laura Benning, of No. 920 Broad Street, St. Joseph, Mich., is a young lady who knows what Wine of Cardui will do, because it cured her of those terrible bearing-down pains which make life a torture for so many thousand women. And she says she never has known of anyone failing to get benefit from Wine of Cardui. She writes the following letter:

I have used your Wine of Cardui with most pleasing results, and I have never known of any one who used it who was not helped by it, so I am satisfied that it must be a very superior remedy. I used to suffer with frequent headaches and bearing down pains, but after taking three bottles of your remedy the unpleasant symptoms disappeared entirely, my appetite improved and so did my general health. I am well satisfied and give it unstinted praise."

In the face of the fact that 1,000,000 women have secured health by taking Wine of Cardui are you willing to let the offer of health go by? To do that would not only be to doom yourself to suffering but to make your children and friends suffer with you. To take the Wine of Cardui treatment does not involve a risk—there is no dangerous operation to make your life hang on a druggist today.

Thousands of women have been cured by Wine of Cardui. You can be cured.

BOWLING DOWN PINS

Owls Lose to A. B. A. Team After an Interesting and Close Struggle.

The match game between the A. B. A. team of San Francisco and the Owls, a local team, on the Oakland alleys last night, was closely contested and brought out some very good individual scores. The Owls won two out of the games played, but lost the total number of pins to the visiting team. The Owls is a new team organized since the Oakland alleys opened, and the showing the team made last night against more experienced bowlers is very creditable.

H. Crawford made the highest individual score for the visitors, but his high score was beaten one pin by H. Anderson of the Owls, who bowled a steady and fine game. H. H. Dowdy of the local team had the next highest score and was ahead of the ten bowlers in the final frame with a score of 20 pins. H. A. Riddle began the game with bad luck, but improved his game greatly during the afternoon and will probably be a return match arranged for the American alleys in San Francisco. Following is the score of last night's match:

FRANCHISEMENT IN CONNECTICUT.

The Constitutional Convention called Connecticut mainly to correct the unequal representation which from the town system in electing members of the Legislature, has sought to perpetuate and accentuate the very tie it was intended to abolish. It is the first time a public body has really the opposite of what it intended to do, but the new Constitution of Connecticut is perhaps the flagrant instance on record. The system was bad enough, but the new is infinitely worse. The only alternative the people of the Nutmeg have left is to defeat the new chance and bear for awhile longer with which they are at present tested.

The new Constitution provides for assembly of 168 members, one from many towns. Eighty-five of these are electing a majority of the Assembly contain 156,387 inhabitants; the other 83 towns contain 752,000 inhabitants. Thus five-sixths of population of the State can only a minority of the Legislature, cities of Hartford and New Haven commercial and financial centers, among more inhabitants than all 5 towns invested with the control of election, are given just two assemblies. New Haven, the metropolis of the State, and the seat of the University of Yale, contains 108,027 inhabitants. Yet it is only given as representation as an insignificant village containing a few hundred population. One vote in ten counts as much as fifty in Haven.

Iniquity of this monstrous of many's government is emphasized by the fact that the small towns are given control of the entire at a standstill or moving slowly, while the large moving towns and cities are rapidly. Thus the evil of misrepresentation will increase year to year. One-sixth of the given control now. According to present rate of growth, one-half the population will have the five years and in ten years.

No commentary is necessary on the iniquity of this scheme of disfranchisement, may be asked, came the Constitutional Convention at present constituted, the Boers had the power, and the Boers in the convention should elect a majority of the Boers and the Boers are given control of the Boers in South Africa. Their bitterness toward the Boers is extreme, and while their number is not large nor their part in the development of the country extensive, they are connected with influential families in England, and thus manage to exert an influence disproportionately to their numbers and importance. They are largely made up of the class that composed the force that Dr. Jameson led in his disastrous raid. Many of them are dissatisfied younger sons and disappointed fortune hunters who believe their chances would be improved if the Boers were wiped out. Their vengeful program stops at nothing short of putting the whole Boer population under ban and confiscating the entire country. In short, they contemplate a wholesale robbery, which was their idea from the first.

Some of the New England Congressmen are trying to fix the Chinese Exclusion bill so it will not exclude—in short, give us a gun that we must shoot. We have had that sort of legislation before, and it was found to be as worthless as a Chinaman's oath. Congress should either give us a good measure or none at all. No bread is better than a stone. The people of the Pacific Coast cannot be imposed upon by cheats.

It is to be hoped that the citizens and public bodies of this city will promptly back up Senator Perkins' efforts to have $100,000 appropriated for Oakland Harbor for the next fiscal year, and a continuing appropriation of $64,200 to complete the improvement recommended in Colonel Heuer's report. This will give us a 25-foot channel to the upper basin inside of three years.

IN THE SPRING

It is an ideal spring medicine and blood purifier, and will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, malaria or liver and kidney troubles. Try it. Our private stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

Dinner Given in Honor of Roger Chickering Prior to His Departure for Alaska.

The determination of the Merchants' Exchange to co-operate with the Knights of Pythias in advertising the advantages and resources of Oakland and Alameda county at the coming bi-annual session of the order in San Francisco is worthy of all praise. The project promises much good, and nothing should be left undone to carry it to a creditable conclusion. While the Knights of Pythias and the Merchants' Exchange have taken the matter up, their efforts should be vigorously seconded by all classes of citizens. A chance is here afforded for mutual co-operation for the general welfare, one of the kind that our brethren south of Tehachapi never neglect. Thousands of representative citizens from all over the country will be present at the K. of P. Convention, and their presence and the pageants which they will give, will attract a vast concourse of visitors. These people will all be seeing things—all eyes and ears, as the saying goes—and their minds will be highly receptive to attractive displays and pleasing impressions. Advertising our city and county in such a gathering is likely to produce exceedingly beneficial results. That can best be done by having an Oakland Day, by bringing the Knights and their ladies and friends over here to see our town with all its beauties and advantages. The parade of the Uniformed Knights will be an interesting spectacle that will attract an army of visitors. No better way of advertising the city could be devised.

It is to be hoped that our citizens will lend their hearty aid and co-operation to the project, for it is quite certain that the Merchants' Exchange will handle its share of the burden with tact and cheerful energy. We ought to have the Knights here one day at least. When the Grand Army came to San Francisco, there was an Oakland Day which is yet remembered as a glorious success.

It seems that the chief obstacle to giving reasonable terms to the Boers is the animosity of the so-called loyalists in South Africa. Their bitterness toward the Boers is extreme, and while their number is not large nor their part in the development of the country extensive, they are connected with influential families in England, and thus manage to exert an influence disproportionately to their numbers and importance. They are largely made up of the class that composed the force that Dr. Jameson led in his disastrous raid. Many of them are dissatisfied younger sons and disappointed fortune hunters who believe their chances would be improved if the Boers were wiped out. Their vengeful program stops at nothing short of putting the whole Boer population under ban and confiscating the entire country. Wilder Wright recently gave a card party at his home on Eighteenth street in honor of his college friend, Roger Chickering, who recently sailed for Alaska. The house was decorated with blue and gold, and the idea of the college colors was carried out wherever possible. The score cards were unique, being conundrums or sketches, and places were obtained by guessing one of the puzzles. A delightful evening was passed at euchre, and the prizes—a pewter ash tray and Hawaiian pin—were won by Robert Sherman and Marian Goodfellow. After the card supper was served, and the guests

SAN LEANDRO MAN ARRESTED FOR STEALING KISSES FROM ROSIE ROSE.

John Douglas Charged With Hugging Girls in Country Town.

SAN LEANDRO. March 26.—Yesterday Judge Quinn dismissed the five young men, Frank Burnett, Joe Claudio, Joe Dias, Antonio Gomes and Thos. Galvin, who were arrested on a charge of highway robbery, preferred by Joseph Douglas, a prominent citizen. On the night of March 16, Douglas was met on Eastudillo avenue by the young men and, it is claimed, severely beaten. He claims that while whipping him the boys took $6.20 from his pockets.

The case is a mysterious one and there is yet promise of sensational features. The young men claim that Douglas is the man who insulted Florence Silva on the Saturday night he was whipped and that they thrashed him for having insulted the young lady. On the stand, Miss Silva testified that she was not sure of the man, but that some man had followed and frightened her when she alighted from the 10:30 o'clock car that night. Im-

VACCINATION IS WORRYING BOYS.

CRACK ATHLETES AT COLLEGE DO NOT WANT TO TAKE ANY CHANCES.

BERKELEY. March 26.—The following order, issued by the University Board of Health owing to the existence of smallpox has caused a great amount of discussion:

"Students who fail to file with the Recorder their certificates of vaccination by 5:00 P. M., Thursday, March 27, will be dropped from the University rolls and excluded from all University privileges until such certificate is filed or until further notice."

The mandatory order of vaccination has caused unkind comment among both the men and women students. Many object to vaccination on the ground that promiscuous vaccination is apt to carry with it nameless diseases, especially if impure vaccine is inadvertently used.

The students as a whole will comply with the order, but a few of the students who do not believe the Board of Health has the right to enforce the vaccination of students may refuse to submit.

An unexpected result of the order may be the postponement of the inter-class field day, which is scheduled to held next Saturday.

If the vaccination "takes," it may leave the athletes in such a condition that they will be unable to perform.

STUDENTS ARE UNEASY WHILE FACULTY INVESTIGATES.

BERKELEY. March 26.—There was much speculation among the students this morning as to the result of the investigation of the Charter Day "rush" on the Berkeley hills.

Just how much authentic information the Committee on Student Affairs is in possession of and just who will be interrogated by the faculty is yet a profound secret.

The general opinion among the students is that the faculty will be unable to take any steps toward the expulsion of those who participated in the rush.

SERVICES IN EAST OAKLAND.

The celebrated "Passion Music" of the late Sir John Stainer will be rendered on Friday night of this week by the choir of the Church of the Advent in East Oakland, under the direction of James Pollitt, organist and choirmaster. The soloists on this occasion will be Mr. Thomas Vail, Bakewell; Mr. Robert L. Parker, bass; Mr. Harry H. Webb, bass; Mr. C. B. Mills, soprano, and Mr. John Combe, violinist. The choruses of this superb cantate will be rendered by a choir of fifty voices, the service commencing at 8 P. M.

BACK TO THE ASYLUM.

Watts Thompson, the wealthy young Chicagoan, who fought in vain before Judge Melvin yesterday to be declared sane, has been taken back to Livermore Sanitarium by Steward Borchert of the Receiving Hospital, who returned this morning after having placed Thompson in the care of the guides. Watts Thompson expressed himself in no complimentary terms of the officers of the law who had returned him to the Sanitarium in which he had been taken a few days before.

JUDGE OGDEN IN SACRAMENTO.

Judge Ogden of the Superior Court is today in Sacramento, where he is hearing a case which he heard a month ago and which he agreed to hear for Judge Hart when the latter was sitting in Judge Ogden's court in this city, in the case of the city of Oakland vs. the Contra Costa Water Company.

EXCUSE WAS GOOD

Why Chief Hodgkins Could Not Wait Upon Police Commissioners.

"Chief of Police Hodgkins sends his compliments and begs to be excused from attending this meeting," said Secretary Jackson of the Police and Fire Commissioners at a meeting of the Board this morning. "He reports that his wife has just presented him with a ten-pound son, and boy and mother are doing well."

"His excuse is good and sufficient," said City Attorney Johnson and the incident closed.

TRYING TO ECONOMIZE IN STREET LIGHTING

The following communication from City Electrician Fleming was read at the meeting of the Board of Public Works this morning:

"Gentlemen: In reply to the request of the Honorable Mayor of the city of Oakland, in regard to the cutting of expenses in the matter of street lighting, I respectfully suggest that the lights may be put out at 1:30 A. M. without seriously inconveniencing the public, as the traffic between this hour and daybreak is very light."

City Attorney Johnson stated that the Light Company had a contract to supply lights and might object to Fleming's proposal. Fleming said, however, he would like to confer with Superintendent Britton on the subject.

The following resolution from the Merchants' Exchange was read and adopted: "Be it resolved by the Merchants' Exchange of Oakland, that we endorse the rule prohibiting the use of city sprinkling carts and other municipal vehicles for advertising purposes, as proposed by his Honor, Mayor Barlow."

The application of M. Walsh to be appointed a street sprinkler was filed.

The protest of John Hampton and others against the removal of an old building to the corner of Twenty-third and Valley streets was laid over, no application for the removal of the building having been filed.

HE BLAMES THE LAW.

Old Timer in the Police Court Did Not Spring Worn Out Defense.

John Smith, famed in the annals of the Police Court as an orator, surprised everybody this morning by quietly pleading guilty to a charge of drunkenness, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve five days by Acting Police Justice Stetson.

Smith has views of his own on drunkenness and he rarely fails to give them in public when the opportunity offers.

Numerous as he is, he pleaded guilty to the charge, notwithstanding the fact that he was not accused of being drunk.

James Hayes was another "old timer" in the dock of the Police Court. He took Smith's cue and pleaded guilty to being drunk and begging, and for the former he was fined $10 or five days in prison, and for begging he was sent to the County Jail for sixty days.

COMPLAINING WITNESS CANNOT BE FOUND.

Court Policeman Turner is having a hard time trying to subpoena H. Boyajian, the Armenian who claims to have been beaten with a chair by Geo. Mikami, a Japanese bath house keeper.

Boyajian gave his address as 414 Jackson street and Turner found that there was no such number in Oakland.

Then he tried San Francisco, with the same result. Today Acting Police Judge Stetson continued the case for trial to April 10 to give the witness further time to search, notwithstanding the objections of Attorneys Lin S. Church and W. H. O'Brien, who have been retained to defend the Japanese.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES.

ALAMEDA, March 26.—At a special meeting of the Library Trustees held last night Charles Frost was elected School Census Marshal to serve in place of W. H. Osborne, who has since his appointment secured a position at Kewicks.

LIGHTS TURNED ON IN ENCINAL CITY.

ALAMEDA, March 26.—Last night all the arc lights in Alameda were burning.

The break in the machinery was repaired yesterday and the lights will now burn every night.

FIREMAN MULLEN OUT.

Violated the Rule About Intoxication and is Retired From Department.

Upon the recommendation of Fire Chief Ball this morning, J. C. Mullen, extra man of Truck No. 3, was dismissed from the Fire Department for violation of Rule No. 33, which prohibits extra men from reporting on duty in an intoxicated condition.

Ira A. Thompson was appointed to the position made vacant by Mullen's dismissal.

POLICE COURT RECORD.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LONDON, March 26.—The House of Commons, after a brief session today, adjourned until April 7th for the Easter holidays.

EXCUSE WAS GOOD

Why Chief Hodgkins Could Not Wait Upon Police Commissioners.

"Chief of Police Hodgkins sends his compliments and begs to be excused from attending this meeting," said Secretary Jackson of the Police and Fire Commissioners at a meeting of the Board this morning. "He reports that his wife has just presented him with a ten-pound son, and boy and mother are doing well."

THE ENQUIRER CASE

Deposition of G. B. Daniels Will Not be Taken for the Present.

Late yesterday afternoon Judge Greene dismissed without prejudice the petition for a writ of mandate requiring Justice Stetson to issue a subpoena to G. B. Daniels of the Enquirer. Judge Greene held that the petition was fatally defective because it failed to allege that Justice Stetson had been tendered the legal fee of 25 cents for issuing the subpoena. It could not be amended because the fee had never been tendered. Judge Greene plainly stated that he saw no reason why the writ should not issue on a proper showing.

Attorney Ach presented a new petition and asked the court to make a new order returnable at 9:30 this morning, but Judge Greene said that the petition would have to be filed with the county and assigned in the regular order. As this precluded the court from taking the deposition fixed for 1:30 o'clock today, the petition for another writ of mandate was not filed. Before it could be heard, however, the time for taking the deposition would have passed, making the whole proceeding nugatory. It is doubtful if any further attempt will be made to take the deposition of Daniels.

keeping with the statement contained in the letter which had been read by Mr. Walker. These facts were not generally known and it was of vital interest that they should be made known.

LOS ANGELES METHODS.

It was in that way that Los Angeles had attained to importance because she made the most of inferior resources and made them appear to be superior. Los Angeles could do as she had done, without doubt, prove that Oakland could boast of what could Oakland not do if she stirs herself as Los Angeles did. He had been in Los Angeles and had striven to get a meeting called to consider the northern part of the State, but it would not be called. But he had gone into a meeting and spoken on the subject and had carried the meeting with him. Something should be done about this. Oakland could do it, and he thought nothing better could be sorted than the publication of the comparative showing of the weather here and in Los Angeles.

Mr. Arper thought that Mr. Sharp's suggestion regarding the publication of the meteorological conditions of Los Angeles and Oakland was an excellent one and should be acted upon.

JONAS ENDORSES.

Mr. Jonas moved that a committee of three be appointed to ascertain what 100,000 copies of such a showing would cost.

The chair appointed as such committee, Messrs. Jonas, Gier and Sharp.

SCHOOL BOARD THANKED.

Director Jonas said that they had failed to thank the Board of Education for their action regarding the change in the beginning of the summer vacation, and accordingly introduced the following:

"Resolved, by the Merchants' Exchange, that we appreciate the action of the Board of Education in fixing the summer vacation at a later date in the year, which will result as a benefit to our community."

The motion was seconded by Mr. Arper and was unanimously adopted.

Bills to the amount of $35.00 were approved.

A communication was received from the Interstate Commerce Law Commission dated Milwaukee, March 17, acknowledging the receipt of a note from the Exchange setting forth the position taken by the Exchange in relation to the proposed interstate commerce bill.

SIGNS OFF CARTS.

Fred Sinclair introduced the following:

"Resolved, by the Merchants' Exchange, that we endorse the rule prohibiting the use of city sprinkling carts and other public vehicles for advertising purposes as suggested by the Mayor."

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

MUTUAL INSURANCE.

Secretary Walker read an article from an Eastern paper upholding mutual insurance. He said he had read it from the paper of appealing the fire insurance company of his State whose management claimed that mutual insurance could not be carried out in this State. Yet it could be successfully carried on in Dakota, but, that, perhaps, was because the people in Dakota were more intelligent than those of California.

Adjourned for a week.

of taking messages from them to their agents in Humboldt county. When everything had been satisfactorily explained Marshal Rainge and Mr. Pann relinquished their hold over young Larsen and he was allowed to go. He was so deeply mortified by his experience that he left Haywards the next day.

CANDIDATES IN LINE.

Monday was the last day for candidates in the coming election to file their petitions. All candidates are now in line, and the fight is on. Between now and the 14th of next month there is the promise of many interesting times in Haywards. One of the most interesting contests will be that for Town Clerk. Neess and Fisher are both up, but a while in line and would have both made a good showing, withdrew and left the field in favor of Zambresky, against Obermiller. Great interest is centered on the fight as both men are strong and widely known throughout the district.

For Trustee, P. Wilbert, president of the Haywards Board of Trade, is on the list. Others are A. Graham, A. S. Jones and T. H. Martin.

For Treasurer Ed Haas, the incumbent, has no opposition.

Marsh Rainge has but one opponent Charles Schilling. The result of the contest for Marshal is somewhat doubtful. Both candidates are capable men and both are well supported.

PERSONALS.

G. S. Jones of Twenty-third avenue was in Los Angeles last week.

After a three weeks trip through the mountains, Edward F. Howard has returned to his home in Fruitvale.

L. W. Blake of this place has gone in business for himself at Twenty-fifth avenue and East Fourteenth street.

Mr. Blake is well known in this place, where he has been in business with his father for many years.

PERKINS SAYS GOOD THINGS OF OAKLAND.

WANTS THE HARBOR BILL AMENDED SO WE CAN HAVE A LARGE SUM.

A dispatch from Washington says: "The Senate Committee on Commerce began its hearings today on the river and harbor bill, and amendments are proposed to be offered by the Senate. Senator Perkins, who is a member of the committee, set forth the claims of Oakland for a higher appropriation than was granted in the bill as passed by the House. He called attention to the wonderful growth of Oakland's commerce, which is paralleled by few ports in the United States for rapidity of development. His amendment reads: 'That this sum appropriated to be immediately available, and authorized continuing contracts for $80,000 additional, be put in a good word for Stockton's project. This contemplates the rectification of Stockton and Mormon channels by diverting the Sacramento river into the California river, in measure of $25,000 for the improvement. With these exceptions California is satisfied with the distribution of favors in the river and harbor bill.'
